

Grand Terrace Tentative Schedule

Since this is an all day contest that will run from 6 am til possibly midnight, I am sending below tentative grouping of events to help skaters manage their schedules.

Note that the grouping are not necessarily the order the events will be skated in. This is just to help know whether you have morning, afternoon, or evening events. I am not putting a specific time frame on these as everything depends on the number of entries.

Once we get all the entries in, we will publish the schedule with actual times.
